

High Resolution Anti-Sabotage Ship Surveillance Sonar System (Massa Model M-1210)

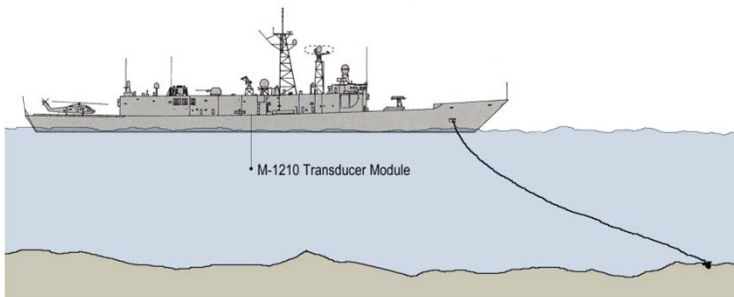

Illustration Showing a Perry Class Frigate at Anchor with the M-1210 System Deployed

- The M-1210 System is the perfect solution to protecting ships at anchor or pier areas from underwater attack
 - Detects and tracks targets on the sea floor or anywhere in the water column within a 750 meter radius of the ship or pier
 - Reliable
 - Inexpensive
 - Portable
 - Can be deployed and operated by a single sailor
 - System can be rapidly produced

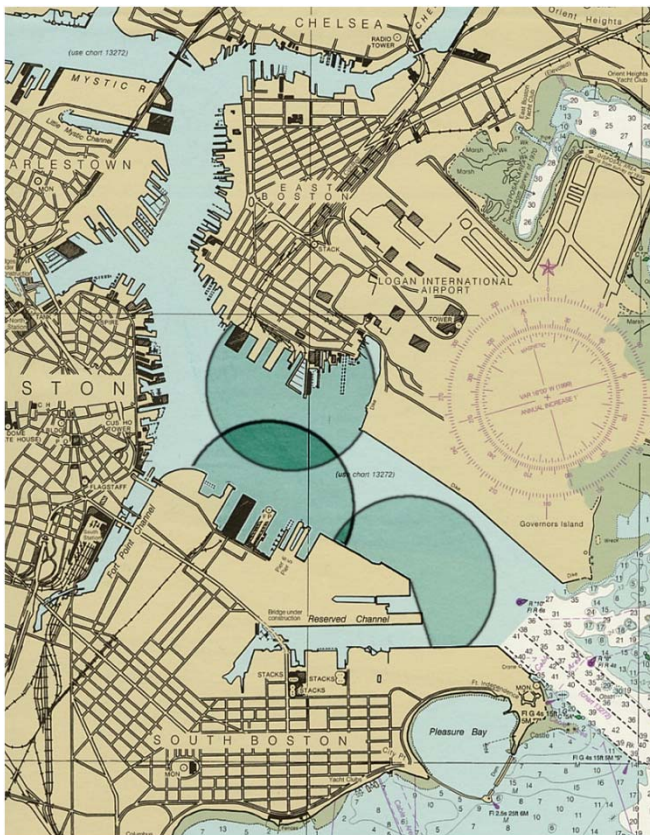

Illustration of How the M-1210 System Could Be Used to Protect Some of the Pier Areas in Boston Harbor

M-1210 Surveillance Sonar System Showing the Small Sizes of the Light Weight Portable Modules